

Richard E. Buckley
Member, Board of Directors
Canadian Orthopaedic Foundation

Dr. Richard Buckley has been on the active medical staff in Calgary since 1990. He is a Professor in the Department of Surgery, in the Division of Orthopaedic Trauma. His active clinical practice is that of orthopaedic trauma and he is extremely active in teaching undergraduate, and post graduate medicine. He has been involved in the Orthopaedic Trauma Fellowship in Calgary, with 71 International Fellows under his tutelage. He is also active in the research front.

Dr. Buckley is an extremely active member of the Association for Study of Internal Fixation (ASIF) (AO). There he has held numerous course Chairman and Board responsibilities, including the International Education Board, International Research Board and has been a member of the Board of Trustees for International AO. He has been lead editor of the AO Manual published in 2018. He has been a member of the Orthopaedic Trauma Association since 1990 and has held positions on the Membership Committee and Nominating Committee for this International leading Association.

Dr. Buckley has also been extremely active in the Canadian Orthopaedic Association (COA) and has been a member of the Membership Committee and Chair of the Membership Committee, COA Advisor to the Canadian Society of Orthopaedic Technologists and Chairman and Founder of the Canadian Orthopaedic Resident Forum (a resident review course).

Dr. Buckley's present research focus is almost exclusively related to trauma and he is an active member within the Canadian Orthopaedic Trauma Society. He has published over 120 papers, given over 600 international addresses and is an Editor of 4 major International, multiply translated orthopaedic textbooks.