

Todd Charlebois
Chief Executive Officer
Canadian Orthopaedic Foundation

Todd brings decades of management and leadership experience – in both the private and public sectors – to his role as CEO. His career highlights include senior roles in marketing, planning, and technology for not-for-profit organizations across North America. For many years, Todd has worked with the Canadian Orthopaedic Association; most recently, he supported fundraising efforts for the ICORS 2019 conference in Montreal.